1. We have queried [] on whether it is worth while to continue to process Subject's reports. [] feels that although Subject's value to us has diminished considerably, the reports should, if possible, be picked up by the SACACTUS representative, as some of them have been of value to our customer agencies in the past, and some useful ones may be submitted in the future.
2. It is difficult to comment on the CAMISE angle (paragraph 6 of reference), since Headquarters has received no progress report on that operation since March 1950.
